

Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy

Ex. 6 Personal Privacy (PP)

Experience:

Speechwriter and Public Affairs Specialist
Corporation for National and Community Service

May 2019 – Present
Washington, DC

- Managing Social Media communications for CNCS, a Billion dollar government agency.
- Managing, overseeing, and editing all internal communications from CNCS Headquarters.
- Speechwriter for Agency CEO Barbara Stewart.
- Conducting outreach to conservative think tanks and organizations to expand awareness of the agency.
- Routinely meet with the senior leadership to plan and execute new and innovative media strategies aimed at growing the overall brand awareness of the CNCS.
- Term Limited appointee

Account Executive
Shirley and Banister Public Affairs

January 2012 – March 2019
Washington, DC

- Drafted op-eds, press releases, social media posts and general content for a diverse array of clients from Medical awareness to social policy advocacy while also managing multiple social media networks.
- Developed contacts at major organizations, news networks, and national radio shows.
- Managed press relations for multiple rallies and events involving major political figures, thousands of attendees, and dozens of reporters.
- Consistently recruited new business, most notably Overstock.com.
- Oversaw the revitalization and restoration of Citizens For the Republic, Ronald Reagan's personal political action committee. Managing/leading multiple teams for all CFTR entities; 501©(3), 501©(4) and political action committee. Promoted to Executive Director in August 2017.

Lead Researcher - Consultant
Shirley and Banister Public Affairs

December 2010 – December 2012
Alexandria, VA

December 1941: 31 Days that Changed America and Saved the World

- Organized and led a team of 12 fact checkers working over multiple weeks to confirm all book sources.
- Uncovered recently declassified documents at FDR Library that redefined the history of Pearl Harbor.
- Researched over 100 newspapers/magazines from December 1941 at the Library of Congress.
- December 1941 became a New York Times bestselling book in January 2012, and was featured on shows such as Morning Joe with Joe Scarborough and The Daily Show.

Other Projects: Citizen Newt: The Rise, Fall and Future of Newt Gingrich
Last Act: The Final Years and Emerging Legacy of Ronald Reagan
Rendezvous with Destiny: Reagan and the Campaign that Changed America

Hospital Corpsman
United States Navy

July 2007 - April 2008
Great Lakes, IL

- Served as a United States Navy Corpsman, successfully completing Naval Hospital Corps School.
- Worked in a diverse array of medical departments and assisted in medical procedures.
- Appointed as Education Petty Officer in basic training after demonstrating superior aptitude.

Education:

Marymount University
B.A., Business Marketing and Natural Science

December 2012
Arlington, VA